Portland, OR 97201

Dear Members and Friends of First United Methodist Church:

It is the intention of Bishop Robert Hoshibata of the Oregon-Idaho Annual Conference to appoint the Rev. Lowell R. Greathouse as Minister of Discipleship and Associate Pastor of Portland First United Methodist Church as of July 1, 2005.

Rev. Greathouse has been serving the last five years in extension ministry as Vision Council Program Director for the United Way of the Columbia-Willamette here in Portland. Prior to that he served as pastor of United Methodist churches in Filer, Idaho; in Lake Oswego, Oregon; and in Beaverton, Oregon. Lowell has served the district and conference in many ways, such as General Conference Delegate in 1996 and as Team Leader of Volunteers in Mission Project to Brazil in 2002.

Lowell is a graduate of San Francisco Theological Seminary, was ordained as a United Methodist elder in 1988, and completed a Doctor of Ministry Program at Azusa Pacific University in 2001 in spiritual formation.

Lowell is married to Susan who works for the state of Oregon as a dietician in the WIC program. They have two daughters, Lindsey who is a freshman in college and Kelly who is a sophomore in high school!

With his wealth of experience, his leadership and organizational skills, and his deep commitment to make a difference for Christ in this world, I believe Rev. Lowell Greathouse will serve First United Methodist Church well.

I want to especially thank Dr. Arvin Luchs, Dr. Wyd Bleything, and all of the Staff-Parish Relations Committee for their dedication and help in the consultative process. All of you at First United Methodist Church are in my prayers as we anticipate this time of new beginnings.

Sincerely,

Bonnie Parr Philipson

FESTIVAL OF THE
CHRISTIAN FAMILY

WE HONOR OUR GRADUATES

As a Reconciling Congregation, members of First United Methodist Church have pledged to welcome and support all who want to worship with us, regardless of race, gender, class or sexual orientation.

memo

Rev. Dr. Arvin R. Luchs

He didn't mince words, "Go...and make disciples." (Matt 28:19 NRSV) Matthew remembered it as the commission given to the first Christians. United Methodists boldly proclaim it our mission, "To make disciples of Jesus Christ." Our congregation's vision statement embraces that mission and our goals define ways we intend to make it real.

"Making disciples" certainly includes inviting and welcoming persons of all ages to offer their lives to Christ and be part of the community of faith—the church. But it is more than that. It is a life-long process of deepening our understanding of God's call and claim on our lives. It involves expressing our faith through worship, music and the arts. But it is more than that. It is building relationships of care and compassion within our church and beyond. It is expanding our vision to share the insights of faith in the public discourse. It is participating, in the name of Christ, in building a just and peaceful society and world. It is opening expanded opportunities to live our faith in our homes and offices, in short-term mission or Christian vocation. In short, 'making disciples' involves all we do to respond to God in our lives—from the time we are presented for baptism to the end of our days!

A big step has been taken to deepen First UMC's commitment to 'disciple-making.' The Staff Parish Relations Committee has studied carefully the professional leadership needed to meet our congregation's vision. Your Leadership Council, on their recommendation, has agreed to a major staff reorganization that will begin as we welcome a new Associate Pastor, Lowell Greathouse, in July.

Dr. Luchs will continue as "Senior Pastor" with overall responsibilities for parish activities, and have primary responsibility for worship, preaching and church administration. He will directly supervise the music, pastoral care, and administrative staff.

Dr. Greathouse will be our "Minister of Discipleship." He will, of course, share in general ministerial duties of worship, occasional preaching and the sacraments, but he will focus much of his energy on 'disciple-making.' He will coordinate the various age-level ministries, and work with lay leadership and staff on member development programs, including outreach and the needs of a reconciling congregation. Staff in education, youth ministry and outreach will report to him.

In the next few weeks we will be announcing the name of a "Minister of Pastoral Care." This part-time position will be responsible for visitation with members and friends in crucial need, those hospitalized and homebound. He/she will work closely with our Steven Ministries as well as the other pastors and staff.

This is an exciting opportunity for our congregation as we focus more intensely on our mission. We'll be fleshing this out more for you in the weeks to come. I invite both your prayers and your thoughtful comments.

See you in church!

introducing

Rev. Dr. Lowell Greathouse

Rev. Dr. Lowell Greathouse has been appointed by the Bishop as our new Associate Pastor and Minister of Discipleship. He will begin his ministry with us July 1, 2005

I grew up in Portland and graduated from Sunset High School in 1972, before attending the Claremont Colleges in Los Angeles. I met my wife Susan in San Francisco and have been married for nearly 22 years. We have two daughters: Lindsey, a freshman at the University of Oregon and Kelly, a sophomore at Westview High School. Many of you know my brother, Gordon, and Teca, who have been missionaries with the United Methodist Church in Brazil since 1978.

Both Susan and I have traveled and lived internationally. I lived in Mexico while attending San Francisco Theological Seminary. In 1977 our family lived in England for the summer as part of an United Methodist Ministerial Exchange. This past year, our family hosted an exchange student from China, and we are currently hosting a high school student from Brazil.

Between 1986 and 1998, I served three United Methodist Churches: Filer, Lake Oswego, and Beaverton. I have also worked for Catholic Charities, Community Action, and currently work at United Way of Columbia-Willamette.

In 2001, I received my Doctor of Ministry degree in Spiritual Formation from Azusa Pacific University. In my spare time, I enjoy reading and writing, running and biking, attending theater, travel, volunteering with community organizations, and working in the yard. I am looking forward to being a part of the First United Methodist Church community.

Who Are We ? Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb

When we first moved to Portland in 1951 I was pastor at the Sellwood Methodist Church. We came in July, but I got a real shock on the first Sunday in October: the able-bodied men disappeared from the congregation! I mean all of them! I didn't think my preaching was that bad! After an anxious interval I discovered that hunting season had opened and that was where they all had gone. Something like that happened in this church, the City of Portland, and indeed the whole Oregon Territory in 1848. The able-bodied men just disappeared -- not to go deer hunting, but hunting for gold in California. Even the territorial legislature was affected -- it couldn't get a quorum! A standard history of the state says that "about two-thirds of the able-bodied men ... left hurriedly." Not only did men disappear, but prices sky-rocketed as gold began to flow in. The late Laura Kelly, granddaughter of Clinton Kelly who was one of the first members of this congregation, once told me a story about him. One day he brought a load of produce to town (he lived way out, at what is now SE 26th and Powell). At the market a man fresh from California was telling about his exploits there. He took a fancy to some of Clinton's fresh peaches, helped himself, and ate as he regaled a few listeners. About the time he finished his story he had also finished three peaches. When he asked how much he owed, he was told $15 -- $5 per peach, and he paid without batting an eye. And you wondering about gasoline at $2.50 a gallon?

FESTIVAL OF THE CHRISTIAN FAMILY

LEAP OF FAITH A SUCCESS

Thanks to the Reconciling Ministries, our youth and the congregation for supporting our Act for Action's presentation of Leap of Faith. This interactive theatre was a well-balanced, entertaining, thought provoking play about same-sex couples and marriage. Even more, though, the play illustrated problems from talking with friends and family to gaining access to a partner's hospital room. The audience became lively participants, literally jumping into the play to take on a character's role. Seeing Rev. Al Rieke use those pastoral powers was impressive as well as our youth trying on new roles. This event was a fundraiser for the Youth Mission Trip and turned out to be a fun and educational evening for the participants.

children & youth a musical

Prayer is the message at the heart of the thought provoking musical program, "Fat, Fat Jehoshaphat." It tells the story of a wise and beloved king who must find a way to get his people safely through the hardest test of their faith that they have ever encountered. With armies of the Moabites, the Ammonites, and the Meunites all descending upon their land, King Jehoshaphat knows that the only way to survive the trial is to ask the Lord for help and trust the answer. Can he convince his people to do the same? Don't miss the answer to his question and more ... such as, what does "beneficent" REALLY mean? Join us on Sunday, May 22 during worship and help us give thanks for how good God has really been to us.

On May 8 and 15, Sunday School children in Grades 1-6 will be helping to put this musical together. The Soundseekers and Cherubs choirs will continue to meet at 9:30 am Sunday mornings to work on individual songs. During Sunday School class time, speaking roles, costumes, sets, programs, etc. will be created and finalized. Sunday School kids are asked to meet in their classrooms, and they will travel as a class to Room 202 for musical projects.
