SERMON
Rev. Dr. Arvin Luchs

As a Reconciling Congregation, members of First United Methodist Church have pledged to welcome and support all who want to worship with us, regardless of race, gender, class or sexual orientation.

CELEBRATING LEADERSHIP

We celebrate and cherish our volunteers and, as is our tradition, on the first Sunday of June we recognized three "Volunteers of the Year" with applause, a permanent plaque and a crystal paperweight. God's work at First Church involves hundreds of volunteers, and we thank you all. But when you next see these people, be sure to congratulate them for being this year's "Volunteers of the Year."

THE GUY WHEATON AWARD recognizes the work of volunteers within our congregation. Mr. Wheaton, one of the founders of the "Shovel and Rake" group was energetic in rallying and inspiring us to work together. No better example of that than this year's recipient, R. "Marty" Martin. Marty's tireless work—from scouting, to flowers, Chrismos and so much more is a blessing to our church.

THE LEWIS HUGHES AWARD for volunteer efforts that extend our work into the community and the world was awarded to The First UMC Hunger Task Force. Sparked by the concern of three members - Liz Jacob, Nancy Miller and Marnie Dey - the team has expanded to lead us in fighting hunger. The late Dr. Hughes, a physician for whom the award is named, is remembered for his dedication to outreach and service.

THE WESLEY SPIRIT AWARD is the newest award and remembers Methodism's founder, John Wesley, who urged the members of his society to cultivate spiritual awareness and practices and, at the same time, be involved in service to others. Anyone who knows Art and Trudy Kayser understands why they received this recognition for their deep faith and sincere dedication both to the work of our congregation and world-wide mission.

To be a part of First Church's contingent in the 2007 Pride Parade, meet in the Fireside Room at 10:15 AM on Sunday, June 17, 2007 so that we can take the MAX to the parade site. The parade begins at 11:15 AM downtown. Several from First Church will already be at the parade site to hold our place. We will have a car and banners as a part of our formation once again. The parade should conclude around 1:30 PM. Let Lowell Greathouse know if you plan to join us. Go to the Pride Parade website at www.pridenw.org for more details on this year's event.

This week your pastors and elected representatives are meeting with other congregations in our Annual Conference in Salem. Ending hunger is at the top of our agenda. The Rev. Kenneth C. Horne, who heads the hunger-fighting organization The Society of St. Andrews, recently released a powerful commentary which I've abridged for you. *

Enough is Enough!

“Enough is enough!” That’s a phrase you’ve heard many times. My mother taught me it meant, “I’ve had all I can take! Stop it NOW!” It still means that as I reflect on nearly 28 years in the anti-hunger movement

Hunger exists in our world for two reasons.

In the less developed world, people go hungry, and sometimes starve, for lack of enough food to feed them. Famine caused by drought, war and pestilence is endemic in far too many places. But for the first time in the history of the human race, eliminating this kind of hunger is clearly possible. It will take time, energy and lots of aid to poor countries. But with help in the form of food, infrastructure, agricultural help and education, famine can and must be eliminated from the human experience.

In the more developed world, on the other hand, people go hungry in the midst of plenty. To our enduring shame, this phenomenon is most blatantly visible in the United States. We Americans are rich beyond imagining in most things.

The list of what there is enough of in this country is impressive.

There is enough food thrown away every year in the United States to feed every man, woman and child that goes hungry.

There is enough surplus wealth in our country to deliver that food to those who hunger.
...A country as rich as this lets its children go hungry because it wants to, not because it has to.

There is enough know-how in our country to devise ways to distribute that food to those in need.

There is enough compassion in our people to want all of our hungry neighbors fed adequately.

Then why do we still have more than 35 million hungry people in our country? What is there not enough of?

There's not enough leadership. Our priorities at the national level simply do not include eliminating hunger.

There's not enough vision. America's religious bodies should band together and show our leaders and our people a vision of what "one nation under God" could look like if we let that God guide our priorities.

There's not enough outrage. Hunger has been with us for so long we have grown numb. To see a child go hungry is a shame and a pity when the hunger is caused by lack of food. It is a sin and a crime when food is plentiful and the people around that child will not trouble themselves to feed him.

It's time for us to declare “enough's enough.”

The Rev. Kenneth C. Horne

a great response

A brief update on the Celebrating Our Past -- Creating Our Future Campaign, we have now passed the $1,500,000 mark. Your response has been extremely gratifying and important as we prepare to move forward with concrete plans for implementing the vision of the campaign. Keep in mind that we will retire our existing mortgage, not undertake any new debt in accomplishing the goals of this effort.
