SUNDAY, DECEMBER 2, 2007

Everyone is invited to our Annual Advent Faire and Chili Feed. Come enjoy a meal prepared by our youth of meat or vegetarian chili and corn bread. The cost is $4.00 per person, $10.00 per family.

After the lunch families can enjoy a variety of craft projects together. There will be ...

- Three-dimensional gingerbread churches
- Christmas Trees
- God's Eye's
- Cookies to decorate

There will be a small fee for craft supplies. For more information about the Advent Faire, contact: Arden Bryce at 503/228-3195 ext. 227 or e-mail her at: abryce@fumcpdx.org.

An update to you is long overdue!

I am thankful that our Capital Fund Campaign, Celebrating Our Past—Creating Our Future, has currently received in gifts or pledges $1,625,000. While that is a bit short of our original goal, it is the most received in any campaign at First Church—and several donors are still considering gifts.

Thanks to you...

- We will be able to pay off the mortgage from previous construction and renovation projects.
- A new sound system has been installed and is making a big difference in the sanctuary. Contracts have been signed for a new roof over Collins Hall and the Fireside Room.
- The roofers have scheduled installation for February.
- The Mary L. Collins Organ is in the final stages of a complete rebuild. The console is now on the chancel and expected to be operative in December. Wind chests, pipes and computerized control systems are being installed and tested. We should be able to enjoy the full organ in early spring.
- Designs for rebuilding the narthex are in the hands of an architect. They should be finalized in the next few months—but construction will not begin until after the Western Jurisdictional Conference which we are hosting in July of 2008.
- So also the redevelopment of Beckham Courtyard is being refined and recast in phases as funds are available. High priority is being given to provide a usable garden area accessible to all of us. Relandscaping needs to be coordinated with the narthex project to facilitate construction access.
- As resources are available, the replacement of the choir risers is a high priority.

You may remember that the Church Conference asked the trustees to implement projects without incurring a new mortgage. So, several projects still await funding. These include the redesign of the chancel and sanctuary lighting upgrades.

This is an exciting time as we see these important projects come to reality.

We owe a debt of gratitude to the Trustees, the Capital Campaign Committee, and especially to Chair, Ralph Bolliger and to Campaign manager, Don Riggs. They have offered boundless energy and hundreds of hours of work to the effort. Because of the work of our own volunteers, the campaign's expenses were only $1500.00—amazingly small for such an effort.

Let us continue to keep the on-going Campaign in our prayers as we build our future together.

See you in Church!

Arvin

Rev. Lowell Greathouse, Minister of Discipleship

Biography is my favorite material to read. Looking into someone else's life often helps me dig more deeply within and find my own way forward. Recently I went to a bookstore and saw on the sale table the book Mandela: The Authorized Portrait. It is filled with pictures, history, personal reflections, and tributes to Nelson Mandela, from his years in prison on Robben Island to his release and days as the elected President on South Africa. The opening quotation in the book is from former-President Bill Clinton: "Every time Nelson Mandela walks into a room we all feel a little bigger, we all want to stand up, we all want to cheer, because we'd like to be him on our best day."

As a follower of Jesus Christ, these words express how I feel and why I try so hard to be conscious of Jesus' presence in the world as I go about my own daily round ... I want to feel a little bigger, stand up a little taller, and cheer a bit more ... and act as Jesus did toward himself, God, and others ... on my best days. It seems like that's the least I can do as someone who calls himself a disciple of Jesus Christ.

where is my Circuit Rider?

You may have noticed a change in the "punctuality" of the delivery of the church newsletter, The Circuit Rider. It is not your postal carrier's fault.

The recent change in postal rates and regulations resulted in a major increase in the cost and process of mailing a not-for-profit periodical. In light of this it was decided to mail The Circuit Rider at a more reasonable "non-profit bulk rate." The downside, however, is that delivery can be VERY SLOW. Mail in this category may take up to two weeks for delivery.

In response, the Church staff is trying to refocus the content on activities happening two or three weeks into the future. Of course that means groups wanting to publicize events need to get them to the church office three to four weeks in advance of the event.

You may choose to subscribe to The Circuit Rider by e-mail. Just send your e-mail address to the church office at office@fumcpdx.org. Or you can visit the First Church website and read the current issue of The Circuit Rider. You can even browse past issues on the website.

We apologize for any confusion resulting from the postal delays. The goal of church communications is to be timely and accurate. Please keep us posted on how we are doing.

Your prayers and continued support are needed.

GREETERS NEEDED

Four persons are needed to join the greeting team for the second Sunday of each month. This only requires a warm smile, friendly greeting and one-half hour of your time one Sunday each month. The "somebody elses" are already busy. Let us not be a church of "nobodys" on this Sunday. Please call the church office and let them know you will participate in this most important ministry of our church. Thank you. Pat Rieke, greeting coordinator
